Quote

“I'm also pretty open to responding to people on LinkedIn. If you write and you have a question or you say, "Oh my gosh, I'm looking, I heard you speak. Or I came across you on LinkedIn, and I'm just wondering like, how can I be like you? Or how can I do what you're doing?" I will say, "Email me, send me your CV. Let's set up 30 minutes to chat."
